SUBJECT REDSMITH/AERODYNAMIC - Recruitment of British Subject
ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES None; for your information OSMA-16633, 19 December 1961
The following are Headquarters comments and suggestions on paragraph 7 of reference: OSMAK policy forbidding the recruitment of British subjects without the knowledge of SMOTH, with which you are acquainted, applies regardless of whether the recruitment contemplated is to take place within or without the UK. It is possible that SMOTH itself has or will develop an operational interest in the lady in question, and waiver of the standing rule under these circumstances could lead to an embarrassing situation. You might wish to consider an alternative, that of declaring your operational interest in the target to SMOTH and requesting the latter's permission to proceed with the operation. There is a fair chance that SMOTH would approve a simple briefing and debriefing operation, which is probably all you would attempt to mount in such a case. If you are interested in pursuing this possibility, Headquarters would be happy to put the question to SMOTH through [REDACTED]. For this purpose we would need some information on the potential agent of course. Please advise. [REDACTED]
